BILLIE LEE MC GILL, Room 104, Sands Motel, 581 East 100 North, St. George, Utah, was advised of the identity of [redacted] as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the fact that Special Agent [redacted] desired to interview him concerning the hijacking of a Northwest Airlines Flight 305, occurring on November 24, 1971. Accompanying Special Agent [redacted] was Chief of Police JOE HUTCHINGS, St. George Police Department.

b6
b7C

MC GILL at the onset of the interview was advised of his rights by Special Agent [redacted] as contained on the executed warning and waiver form. MC GILL thereafter provided the following information:

b6
b7C

It should be noted that MC GILL was extremely sluggish, almost incoherent in some of his answers and would respond differently to the same question numerous times during the interview.

MC GILL was asked by Special Agent [redacted] to provide his whereabouts on November 24 and 25, 1971; namely, Wednesday and Thursday of November of 1971. MC GILL first indicated that he was in Des Moines, Iowa, at his residence, the address of which he could not recall. When informed by Special Agent [redacted] that investigation indicated he possibly was in Alhambra, California, on Thanksgiving Day of 1971, MC GILL stated that it is possible he could have been. MC GILL later changed this statement that he had been in Des Moines, Iowa, or at Alhambra, California, on November 24 or 25, 1971, to state that he simply could not remember.

b6
b7C

MC GILL indicated throughout the interview that he was willing to answer any and all questions to the extent of his memory.

MC GILL stated he has been out of work for approximately 18 months, following his resignation as Deputy Director of the Narcotics Bureau for the State of Iowa. He indicated that he had been given the ax because of his drinking problem.

In regard to his limp, which was quite noticeable, MC GILL indicated he had hurt his ankles in an accident near Des Moines, Iowa, on December 24, 1971, which had been investigated by a [redacted] of the Des Moines, Iowa, Police Department. He stated, which he later refuted, he had been driving at that time a 1969 Dodge Polara, a State vehicle, which was involved in the accident. MC GILL later refuted this to say that this was not the incident which hurt his ankles; however, he had hurt his ankles approximately five to six months ago in Des Moines, Iowa, when he had parachuted from an aircraft piloted by [redacted] Municipal Airport, Mason City, Iowa. MC GILL stated in regard to his parachuting experience he had parachuted for the military and since leaving the military he had parachuted several times as an amateur with police officer of Cerro Gordo County and police officers of Mason City, Iowa.

b7c

In response to several questions by Special Agent [redacted] MC GILL exhibited a good knowledge of aircrafts and parachuting techniques to the extent that how you would lower your landing gear and drop full flaps in order to slow an aircraft down to a landing speed and other semi-technical terminology which a person familiar with aircraft and parachuting techniques would use. MC GILL stated one would be a fool for jumping from an aircraft over 10,000 feet and would be a fool to come out of an aircraft above 170 to 200 miles per hour as he might be caught in the air stream and be dashed against the fuselage of the aircraft.

b6
b7c

MC GILL indicated he had sold his former residence, 2423 Richmond Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa, and had made an undisclosed amount of money from the sale. He further indicated he was divorced; however, he declined to mention his ex-wife's name or whereabouts.

In regard to his hurt ankles, MC GILL stated he had seen a doctor, name not recalled, at the VA (Veterans Administration) Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa, on March 30, 1972, at 9:30 a.m. He provided a slip which verified the place and date as an outpatient.

SU 164-24
SE 164-81

MC GILL stated he definitely had not been involved in the hijacking of Northwest Airlines Flight 305 on November 24, 1971, and further he had never been to the cities of Portland or Seattle, nor had he been to the states of Oregon or Washington. When asked if he had ever flown in a 727 jet aircraft, he stated that most likely he had as he has flown considerably between Des Moines, Iowa, and Alhambra, California.

MC GILL stated he owned a Smith and Wesson Model 19 .357 caliber revolver and a .25 caliber Beretta pistol, which he stated were in his parents' possession, Alhambra, California.

MC GILL stated that presently his finances consisted of approximately $2,000 in the Valley Bank and Trust Company, Des Moines, Iowa, and $1,800 in cash which he maintained in his wallet.

MC GILL stated he had recently purchased, date not recalled, a 1969 Mercury Monterey in Las Vegas from an automobile company which he could not recall with a cashier's check in the amount of $1,800 drawn on the Bank of California. This vehicle was determined by Special Agent [redacted] to bear Nevada License CAF 092, Vehicle Identification Number 9Z44K529224, and to be a four-door sedan with black vinyl top and white body.

[redacted], Portland State University, home address [redacted], home telephone number [redacted], work telephone number [redacted] was interviewed following [redacted] Tena Bar in Vancouver, Washington, where portions of $20 bills had been found. These $20 bills were among the money furnished a person identifying himself as D. B. COOPER during a 1971 airplane high-jacking attempt. [redacted] was interviewed by SA [redacted] of the Portland, Oregon, FBI Office.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he found the beach area in the vicinity where the money was found to be in approximately four different layers. These layers consisted of an upper sand layer, a post dredging sand layer, a clay lump (dredge) sand layer, and below that an older sand layer. The upper layer consisted of six inches to eight inches of reworked beach sand and is the sand which contained the fragments and bundles of the recovered money. This sand also contained soda pop cans and other debris, which were not severely damaged or rusted. The post dredging sand contained older soda pop cans, rusted nails and spikes, and other rusted artifacts, which were in a much more deteriorated condition. The clay lump (dredge) sand was a mixture of coarse sand and fragments of organic clay material, ranging from one inch to five inches in size. Based on U.S. Corps of Engineering records which reflect that they dredged the Columbia River at this site in 1974, [redacted] stated this clay layer in all probability, was deposited during that 1974 dredging. The older sands, which were light in color and uniform in texture and which were found below the clay lump sand, were deposited prior to the 1974 dredging.

[redacted] advised that in the post dredging layer, he found cross bedded coarse and medium sand, which indicated the river and river waves had worked repeatedly on this layer since 1974. The upper six inches to eight inches of reworked beach sand is the active layer which is currently being worked by the water of the Columbia River.

b6

Based on the condition of the money through observation, [redacted] advised that the money was probably washed into the location where it was found by natural river flow and was probably placed at the location of Tena Bar during the last rise in the Columbia River in the past two or three months.

[redacted] Charlottesville, Virginia, was shown four artists' composites, two black and white and two colored, depicting the individual known as D. B. Cooper who skyjacked Northwest Orient Flight Number 305 on November 24, 1971. [redacted] viewed the four artists' composites and stated in her judgment, the black and white artist's composite without the sunglasses looks just like [redacted] John Scott Maze, who died of a heart attack in November, 1974, in Scottsdale, Arizona, at the age of 59.

b7C

She noted in addition to the information she furnished to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Charlottesville, Virginia, on April 11, 1980, John Scott Maze did smoke cigarettes of the filter type but she could not recall the brand.

She also noted he was always extremely polite, even to her whom he did not care for at all.

She noted the composite she identified as looking just like John Scott Maze, looked like him without the "David Niven" type mustache he always wore.

She also recalled he always talked at a low modulation as he had an adversity towards loud noise. She added, she talks loud and that was one of the things Maze did not like about her.

[redacted] advised she has papers and photographs stored away and if she locates anything which would be of further value to the Federal Bureau of Investigation concerning Maze, she will contact the interviewing Agent and furnish it to him.

b6

In conclusion she stated in her judgment, the composite picture she identified is a picture of John Scott Maze, and Maze's complexion was even more tan than the complexion depicted in the colored composites when she last saw Maze in person in 1972.

Richard A. Armstrong, Bickel Trailor Court, who being made aware of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, advised as follows:

Armstrong stated that he has had a continuing interest in the D. B. Cooper affair since its occurrence because of the newsmedia conjecture that Cooper possibly was a parachutist and that he had been a paratrooper. He said that the fact of his being a former paratrooper and his resemblance to the artist conception of Cooper has brought comments from fellow construction workers, such as, "Armstrong, are you sure you are not Cooper?". When the interviewing agent advised Armstrong that he was there as a result of an anonymous phone caller, Armstrong said, "oh, the caller was probably my ex-mother-in-law!".

Armstrong commented about a recent article in the Parkersburg Newspaper which told of pieces of the extortion money being found. He said it was probably placed there as a "decoy". He asked the interviewing agent if the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) had obtained fingerprints of Cooper and if the FBI were certain that Cooper had actually parachuted, instead of hiding himself on the plane. Also, when the mechanics of the alleged jump were discussed, Armstrong stated that the jump was certainly possible, that the speed of the plane and the altitude of it would be no factor. He said that he, as a United States Army Paratrooper, had made 30 jumps; one jump, according to him, was made from a plane flying at 300 miles per hour.

Armstrong advised, when he was told by the interviewing agent of his similarity to Cooper, that he is not Cooper and that he had been no farther West than Iowa. He did admit, however, to considerable travel, including flying to various places, but mostly, he said, East of the Mississippi. He said that he once had a passport to Newfoundland, and; more recently, he said he made an application for a passport to Saudi Arabia.

[redacted] Charlottesville, Virginia, was shown four artists' composites, two black and white and two colored, depicting the individual known as D. B. [redacted] viewed the four artists' composites and stated in her judgment, the black and white artist's composite without the sunglasses looks just like [redacted] John Scott Maze, who died of a heart attack in November, 1974, in Scottsdale, Arizona, at the age of 59.

She noted in addition to the information she furnished to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Charlottesville, Virginia, on April 11, 1980, John Scott Maze did smoke cigarettes of the filter type but she could not recall the brand.

She also noted he was always extremely polite, even to her whom he did not care for at all.

She noted the composite she identified as looking just like John Scott Maze, looked like him without the "David Niven" type mustache he always wore.

She also recalled he always talked at a low modulation as he had an adversity towards loud noise. She added, she talks loud and that was one of the things Maze did not like about her.

Sometime during the last week of August, 1980 or the first week of September, 1980 he observed a television program entitled "In Search Of" and it probably was on a weekend when the program was broadcast on local television. The program consisted of a review of an airplane hijacking that occurred between Portland, Oregon and Seattle, Washington in approximately November, 1971. [redacted] Portland State University, home address [redacted], home telephone number [redacted], work telephone number [redacted], was interviewed following [redacted] Tena Bar in Vancouver, Washington, where portions of $20 bills had been found. These $20 bills were among the money furnished a person identifying himself as D. B. COOPER during a 1971 airplane high-jacking attempt. [redacted] was interviewed by SA [redacted] of the Portland, Oregon, FBI Office.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he found the beach area in the vicinity where the money was found to be in approximately four different layers. These layers consisted of an upper sand layer, a post dredging sand layer, a clay lump (dredge) sand layer, and below that an older sand layer. The upper layer consisted of six inches to eight inches of reworked beach sand and is the sand which contained the fragments and bundles of the recovered money. This sand also contained soda pop cans and other debris, which were not severely damaged or rusted. The post dredging sand contained older soda pop cans, rusted nails and spikes, and other rusted artifacts, which were in a much more deteriorated condition. The clay lump (dredge) sand was a mixture of coarse sand and fragments of organic clay material, ranging from one inch to five inches in size. Based on U.S. Corps of Engineering records which reflect that they dredged the Columbia River at this site in 1974, [redacted] stated this clay layer in all probability, was deposited during that 1974 dredging. The older sands, which were light in color and uniform in texture and which were found below the clay lump sand, were deposited prior to the 1974 dredging.

[redacted] advised that in the post dredging layer, he found cross bedded coarse and medium sand, which indicated the river and river waves had worked repeatedly on this layer since 1974. The upper six inches to eight inches of reworked beach sand is the active layer which is currently being worked by the water of the Columbia River.

b6

Based on the condition of the money through observation, [redacted] advised that the money was probably washed into the location where it was found by natural river flow and was probably placed at the location of Tena Bar during the last rise in the Columbia River in the past two or three months.

live that this information will lead to the arrest and conviction of "Dan B. Cooper", and the return of the money taken.

Dan B. Coopers "ILLUSIONS"

A. The public and the FBI believe the following:

1. On November 24, 1971 Northwest Orient flight 305 left Washington DC for Portland Oregon, then Seattle Washington.

2. Shortly before landing in Seattle a note was given to a stewardess to relay the following information to the pilot

a. I have a bomb in my briefcase;

b. Do the following: Relay I will exchange all 36 passengers for $200,000 in twenty dollar bills, and 4 parachutes.

3. All the passengers, plus 2 stewardesses were released in exchange for the above.

4. Money and chutes on board, Cooper positively identified as being on board the aircraft - Aircraft now lifts off.

a. 8 fighter jets now tail the aircraft at slow speed, with the door in the tail section of the aircraft open, all the way to Reno Nevada.

1. All the fighter pilots report that no one left the aircraft

b. The aircraft now lands, FBI agents and police engulf the aircraft and are convinced that Cooper did not get off the aircraft in Reno Nevada.

c. Logical assumption is to assume that Cooper had to parachute off the aircraft between Seattle and Reno Nevada.

DB Cooper 31421 [redacted]

1. The search now starts for Coopers body, and the money.

a. everyone is throughly convinced that mr. Cooper is without a doubt dead.

b. 5 years later still no evidence to indicate that Cooper had indeed jumped. The money is still missing. Not one of the $20 dollar bills has ever turned up in circulation.

d. Cooper is now made a national hero, the public, and the FBI are still stumped as to the whereabouts of Cooper or the money.

The following information has been abbreviated to indicate our main findings.

A. Flight 305 starts as a routine flight from Washington DC to Portland, then Seattle.

1. Mr. X dressed as himself now leaves DC for Seattle.

a. Mr. or Mrs. X upon arrival in Portland departs the aircraft with the portland passengers, even though his ticket axually reads to Seattle.

b. Mr. or MrsX now changes clothing, and now is ready to re-board the aircraft as a ticketed passenger known as Mr. Dan Cooper.

2. Just prior to touchdown Mr. Dan Cooper hands the stewardess a note indicating her to have the pilot to do the following:

A.I have a bomb in my briefcase have the pilot relay the following:

1. I will exchange all the passengers aboard for $200,000 and 4 parachutes.

2. The return message came that we will follow your instructions as indicated if you release the passengers first.

B. Passengers were now released as asked to do, in good faith.

1. Before the passengers were released off the aircraft the following took place as scheduled.

a. Cooper now changes back into his original clothing of Mr. X.

1. A crewmember, most likely the 2nd officer puts on the clothing that Cooper originally had on, to complete the second part of Cooper.

2. 35 passengers, plus Mr. or Mrs. X and 2 stewardesses now depart the aircraft, all of these people probably state that they saw Cooper on board the aircraft. (Actually they must have been convinced that the 2nd officer was Cooper at this point.)

3. Actually you have 2 people playing themselves, and Cooper. Mr. X plays himself, then Cooper until the plane lifts off, upon which he resumes his real identity, creating the illusion that there are 5 people on the aircraft upon take off, when in reality only 4 are indeed aboard.

3. Money and chutes are now put upon the aircraft, and the flight now lifts off for Reno Nevada.

A. 8 fighter jets now trail the aircraft all the way to Reno.

1. The aircraft flies at slow speed, and low with the door in the tail open to create the illusion that Cooper would indeed jumpout.

B. On the aircraft 4 crewmembers, not 5 - because there was no Cooper - complete the following:

1. All the evidence aboard the aircraft must be destroyed.

a. The dummy chutes, $200,000, and any other evidence is now all burned. YES I SAID THAT THEY DID INDEED BURN EVERY LAST 20 DOLLAR BILL OF THE $200,000. -THE ILLUSION IS NOW COMPLETE- NO COOPER, NO MONEY, NOCHUTES, NO-EVIDENCE ARRIVES IN RENO NEVADA. -

4. Upon touchdown in Reno the fighterpilots now state that Cooper did not jump, and that nothing left that aircraft.

2. The FBI and police now engulf the aircraft, certain that Mr . Cooper is aboard. After a through search of the aircraft, and crew, they are convinced that Mr. Cooper had indeed jumped without them detecting his jump.

THE GREATEST MADIGICAL PERFORMANCE EVER HAS NOW BEEN COMPLETED, WITH THE LARGEST POSSIBLE AUDIENCE -THE WHOLE WORLD.

1. The crew of this aircraft were nothing but actors that were probably paid very well to put on this fine performance.

2. You must realize that the money was not the motive in this fine madigical feat, the money was no more than a mere stage prop that had to be burned to complete this fine series of illusions.

3. This shows you something about our Mr. or Mrs. Cooper. Cooper has to be a very well to do person, such as an actor, or magician.

4. In 5 years the FBI has been trying to find some evidence to indicate that Mr. Cooper jumped, and in 5 years they have not been able to prove this fact, no body, parachutes, or money has ever been found.

The above information has been presented to you to be notorized and signed [redacted] to represent the research that [redacted] have concluded, that in our opinions may lead to the arrest and conviction of Mr. or Mrs. Dan B. Cooper, and accomplices. Therefore Mr. X also known as Dan B. Cooper, has his name on the passenger list in the FBI files, and we have been denied permission to look at this list by the FBI.

Dated at Tacoma, Washington, this 9th day of December, 1976.

Dick Dyer, F.B.I. Agent

Dear Mr. Dyer:

I am sure glad to read about
~~the~~ Grand Jury there indicting Mr.
D.B. Cooper. Because I would like to see him brought to justice and soon too and it can be done now too because the Old Devil St. Peter Matth 16:122673 and his seven supposed to be angels have been overcome by The 55 Highest in Heaven and me here. and this job has taken a while too 18 years is a long time to be fighting these evil so & so and I am very happy to say that it is finished and please don't take my word for it and ask for Verification of it and ask for Divine Guidance too from The Creator God Jehovah, The Real

Divine & Holy Universal Intelligence, and he sure to use the word Real so you can by-pass any & all of the Old Devil³ impersonators and receive the Truth for a change and there you will be willing to use it after you get it too, I was given a patentable idea 18 years ago and it is much needed too but I kept getting negative answers from my patent attorney in Washington so I finally decided that the Old Devil was behind this action so this is when I volunteered to overcome him but within a day or two Jenns who is one of the Seven Spirits of God let me know that the Devil had Seven Angels who had to be overcome too so I quietly accepted it and have been working on it ever since but it is now finished and this Skyjacker can be brought to justice now because I get pertinent information from the 55 Christian Elders in Heaven (my Heaven Connection) so his real name is

[redacted] and He lives in St. Landersdale, Florida. And He still has the $200,000.00 intact waiting for the Status of Limitations to run out, He hangs around the Le Club a Boat Club and is a Codsinner of a Open Sea Speed Boat with [redacted] there, and the reason

~~that he~~ never left any clues is because this and the murder of Senator Leroy's Daughter Valerie were supposed to be perfect crimes and signal all the Crooks in the U.S.A. to get on the Ball and make things really miserable for the Decent Folks here so he had the Help of the Devil and His Sister and His Nephew the Antichrist believe it or not and so did [redacted]
the man who murdered Senator Leroy's Daughter [redacted] in Las Vegas, Nevada.

and he is armed and should be considered dangerous and the knife this man used has never been found as yet and I believe that it is in a dematerialized state some place and the reason that Cooper never left any clues is because when he left the plane with the money the old Devil & His Sister & His Nephew demater-ialized him & the money and whisked him through the air all the way across the W.S.A. then to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, and set him down in his own back yard then materialized him & the money again and you have a perfect Crime - almost, they didn't count on my friends in the spirit world giving me this information, my Divine & Holy Guide was Venus one of the Seven Spirits of God and I would like to add she was a very good one too, so I urgently suggest that both these men be brought in for a questioning and given Lie Detectors Tests plus Truth Serum and have Confessions typed up for them to sign when they admit their guilt, also I have written about a dozen letters volunteering information about certain crimes to the main office in Washington D.C. and a female employee there has been intercepting them and hiding them in the "A" File and her name is b6

b7C
so please call Mr. Clarence M. Kelley and tell him about this and find those letters and act on them and that everyone who is given a Lie Detector test is also given: Truth Serum too to make sure that they tell the Truth or so you can discover the Truth & in this area a man by the name of

for this one. then about three months later at Santa Fe, New Mexico; then about 3 months later at San Francisco, California. then about 3 months later at Truth or Consequences, New to justice too and just as soon as it is intelligently possible and if you send someone here I will give them the names and show them the locations of most of their Articles, one is in El Paso, Texas and two are in Arizona and three in New Mexico not in this area. There is one murderer in El Paso, Texas too and two murderers in Anthony, New Mexico, there is a small reward for these three through the El Paso, in there but evidently no action has been taken, the Silver Dimes that were stolen on the East Coast are at the Danbury Mint at Westport, Connecticut. There is two million Dollars in Stolen Money buried at Central Argyle, Nova Scotia. from a Brim's Money Truck Robbery at Boston I believe, and I am waiting right now for the Good Lord Jesus Christ and His Angels to Come & Pick up the Devil and His senior supposed to be angels and any other hidden enemies here and start processing them a good riddance too.

So please call Mr. Kelley and give him the information and that [redacted] b6 b7C should be charged with Obstructing Justice and Obtaining Money under false pretenses. I believe, also I believe that the Devil has threatened lots of Law enforcement people with Death if they do their jobs and some F.B.I. people are among them too, so they have to be told that the Devil has been overcome by his angels and that the Creator God Jehovah has control over them and they can now do their jobs with out any interference from the evil ones.

please act on all these things and I the Devil has been stopping any additional

Dear Mr.

Unfortunately, there remains only a limited number of copies of the ransom list. It therefore is not possible to send copies of the list to everyone requesting them.

Might I suggest, if you have a serial number you wish to check, to contact your local sheriff's office or bank as they should both be in possession of the ransom list.

As you know, it is only through the cooperation by citizens such as yourself that this crime might be solved. Thank you for your interest in this matter.

The FBI Asks Enquirer Readers . . .

Help Us Find Skyjacker Who Escaped With $200,000 Cash

The FBI has asked ENQUIRER readers to help crack the mystery behind one of the great unsolved crimes of the past 25 years — who and where is skyjacker D.B. Cooper?

A man using that name hijacked a jetliner in 1971 and parachuted into the darkness over Oregon, carrying $200,000 in cash with him. No trace of him or the money has ever been found.

"Readers of The ENQUIRER could help us solve the mystery," said FBI Agent Ralph Himmelsbach, who has been working on the case since the hijacking. "Since we haven't found him, the case is still open and we're still looking."

SKYJACKER
FBI artist's version of the mysterious D.B. Cooper.

Cooper — a tall, dark-complexioned man neatly dressed in a business suit, topcoat and brown oxfords — hijacked a Portland-to-Seattle jet on the evening of Nov. 24, 1971.

He demanded that 10,000 $20-bills be delivered to him at Seattle along with four parachutes — or he would blow up the plane.

Airline officials complied with his demand. In return, Cooper allowed the 36 passengers and two of the three stewardesses to leave the plane.

He then ordered the pilot to fly south to Reno, Nev., at 200 mph at 10,000 feet with the wing flaps down. He ordered the crew members to stay in the cockpit.

A few minutes later in the dark skies over Oregon, Cooper unlatched the jet's rear boarding ramp and jumped out, wearing one of the parachutes.

The plane was flying at 196 mph, the temperature was 7 degrees below zero and there were winds of up to 50 mph. As far as is known, Cooper wore no goggles or protective clothing.

Using a computer, the FBI calculated he parachuted into a 24-square-mile area on the Washington-Oregon border near the rugged shores of Lake Merwin in an area of dense woods and craggy foothills, almost impossible in many places.

"For him to have gotten down uninjured would have been a tremendous feat or a tremendous stroke of luck," said Himmelsbach.

If Cooper died that night, no one has ever admitted finding his body — or the $200,000 ransom.

"Let's assume Cooper didn't survive the jump," Himmelsbach said in explaining how ENQUIRER readers could help.

"That means there is someone somewhere who went missing about that time and has never returned. And even if Cooper did survive, he may not have returned to his family.

"So, we'd be interested in information from ENQUIRER readers about any missing person who might fit Cooper's description.

"If he did survive the jump, that means that unless he is very careful about spending the money a little at a time, he might be noticeable by any changes in his life-style. If he was not a wealthy man and he started making purchases beyond his means, then this is something to look for.

"ENQUIRER readers, especially bank tellers and others who regularly handle money, also could help by scanning their $20 bills and checking them against the list of missing bills."

Anyone who might have specific information that might help solve this mystery should call or write their local police or FBI office or write to: Special Agent in Charge, FBI, 915 Second Avenue, Seattle, Wash. 98174.

Do not send any anonymous information. Authorities may wish to contact you to confirm the information, so be sure to include your name, address and phone number.

If you suffer from insomnia, never read, eat or watch TV in bed, advises sleep expert Dr. Perry Nicassio.

"Unless your problem is a physical one, the way to overcome insomnia is quite simple," he says. "When you're ready to go to bed, be ready to go to sleep — and condition your mind to that idea.

If you can't fall asleep within 30 minutes after getting into bed, get up and go into another room until you feel ready for sleep. Then go back to bed and try again. If you're still awake after 30 minutes, get up again.

"While it may take a couple of weeks or more of comparatively sleepless nights, most insomniacs will begin to develop the habit of going to bed by a physical problem, or major psychological trouble, treatment by a physician or psychiatrist is indicated."

Dr. Nicassio, a clinical psychologist, said millions suffer from some form of insomnia at some point in their lives.

"Insomniacs can be young, middle-aged or old, and from all walks of life," he noted.

"Among prime candidates for insomnia are middle-class

I can not explain it all in this letter. I don't have all the information needed.

The FBI Asks ENQUIRER Readers . . .

Help Us Find Skyjacker Who Escaped With $200,000 Cash

The FBI has asked ENQUIRER readers to help crack the mystery behind one of the great unsolved crimes of the past 25 years — who and where is skyjacker D.B. Cooper?

A man using that name hijacked a jetliner in 1971 and parachuted into the darkness over Oregon, carrying $200,000 in cash with him. No trace of him or the money has ever been found.

"Readers of The ENQUIRER could help us solve the mystery," said FBI Agent Ralph Himmelsbach, who has been working on the case since the hijacking. "Since we haven't found him, the case is still open and we're still looking."

SKYJACKER
FBI artist's version of the mysterious
D.B. Cooper.

Cooper — a tall, dark-complexioned man neatly dressed in a business suit, topcoat and brown oxfords — hijacked a Portland-to-Seattle jet on the evening of Nov. 24, 1971.

He demanded that 10,000 $20-bills be delivered to him at Seattle along with four parachutes — or he would blow up the plane.

Airline officials complied with his demand. In return, Cooper allowed the 36 passengers and two of the three stewardesses to leave the plane.

He then ordered the pilot to fly south to Reno, Nev., at 200 mph at 10,000 feet with the wing flaps down. He ordered the crew members to stay in the cockpit.

A few minutes later in the dark skies over Oregon, Cooper unlatched the

jet's rear boarding ramp and jumped out, wearing one of the parachutes.

The plane was flying at 196 mph, the temperature was 7 degrees below zero and there were winds of up to 50 mph. As far as is known, Cooper wore no goggles or protective clothing.

Using a computer, the FBI calculated he parachuted into a 24-square-mile area on the Washington-Oregon border near the rugged shores of Lake Merwin in an area of dense woods and craggy foothills, almost impenetrable in many places.

"For him to have gotten down uninjured would have been a tremendous feat or a tremendous stroke of luck," said Himmelsbach.

If Cooper died that night, no one has ever admitted finding his body — or the $200,000 ransom.

"Let's assume Cooper didn't survive the jump," Himmelsbach said in explaining how ENQUIRER readers could help.

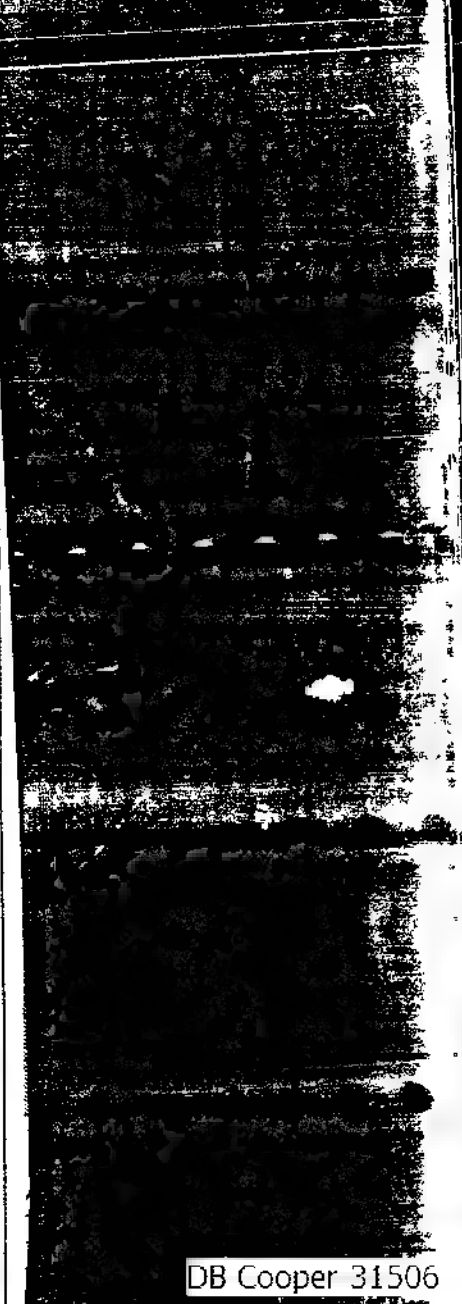

"That means there is someone somewhere who went missing about that time and has never returned. And even if Cooper did survive, he may not have returned to his family.

"So, we'd be interested in information from ENQUIRER readers about any missing person who might fit Cooper's description.

"If he did survive the jump, that means that unless he is very careful about spending the money a little at a time, he might be noticeable by any changes in his life-style. If he was not a wealthy man and he started making purchases beyond his means, then this is something to look for.

"ENQUIRER readers, especially bank tellers and others who regularly handle money, also could help by scanning their $20 bills and checking them against the list of missing bills."

Anyone who might have specific information that might help solve this mystery should call or write their local police or FBI office or write to: Special Agent in Charge, FBI, 915 Second Avenue, Seattle, Wash. 98174.

Do not send any anonymous information. Authorities may wish to contact you to confirm the information, so be sure to include your name, address and phone number.

The read-out is as follows; THERE WAS NO PROBLEM WITH 196 MPH SPEED, 7 DEGREES BELOW ZERO TEMPERATURE, AND UP TO 50 MPH WINDS. D. B. DID NOT MAKE THE INDICATED PARACHUTE JUMP. THE CREW MEMBERS LIED. THE CREW MEMBERS AND D. B. WERE CO-CONSPIRATORS.

Deadly Tumors in Animals

By CHARLES PARMETER

By New Mexico

A housecat, a bulldog and an elephant have been relieved of deadly tumors by a remarkable heat treatment developed at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine.

The cat had a cancerous tumor in her nose, the bulldog a malignancy on the leg and the elephant a baseball-sized obstruction in his trunk. All three animals are free of their tumors since receiving the heat treatment at the university's Animal Resource Facility in Albuquerque.

"It has been known for years that heat kills cells, and that tumor cells are especially sensitive to heat," explained Dr.

nant tissue was destroyed."

Said Dr. Clint Hughes of Albuquerque, who diagnosed the cat's cancer and referred the case to Dr. Day:

"Since the cat was given this heat treatment 2½ years ago, there has been no indication of a return of the malignancy. I consider the animal cured."

As for the bulldog with a malignant tumor on the leg, Dr. Day said: "We gave the dog two treatments of 30 minutes each. That was 22 months ago, and there has been no recurrence of the tumor."

Ronald W. Nyrop, President.
Northwest Orient Airlines.
Dear Sir;

Whether you believe the following information, and how I came to obtain it is a matter for you to decide. By rejecting the information, you are still minus $250,000 and a maniac that has motivated hijacking and mass murdering aboard Airlines.

I am in no way affiliated with EVIL, or the hijacker "D.B. Cooper." I am a man of God, and when the time comes, you will know just how close I am walking with God. For the time being, we will let it stand, and get to the point...

"D.B. Cooper" ordered the aircraft to circle SEA-TAC airport, as you well know. You also know, although it is not general public information, that a tape recorder had been found that had been issuing orders to the pilot long after "Cooper" jumped. What you do not know (but God knows) is WHERE he jumped, and the disposition of the money. His letter to you sometime ago was a ~~psychological~~ psychological blunder, pointing out the fact that he lost the money bag after jumping from the aircraft, due to the force of the wind ripping it out of his hand. Before I reveal the locality of the ransom money, (and I can pinpoint the spot where you can recover it!) let me fill you in as to "Cooper's" ~~MYSTERY~~ plan of operation. In the first place, he had an accomplice, whom I will reveal a little later. "Cooper" as you have suspected, is a "fire jumper" for the National Forest Service. The very name "D.B. Cooper" means, Double Back (to) Cooper (Lake)!"

When the aircraft circled around above Sea-Tac Airport, "Cooper" bailed out, leaving the recorder running with directions, etc. He planned the jump so that the wind was coming from the Southwest at a certain rate of speed, and would blow him toward the North-northwest! His plan was to land in Cooper Lake, not far from Salmon La Sac, a public camping area. He miscalculated the wind and drift, and landed instead in LAKE KACHESS!

I have shared this information with the F.B.I. and also the Secret Service. Both have stupidly ignored me, although it is the duty of the same to check all possible angles, wouldn't you think? The Secret Service is so secret, I wonder if they know what is real? But that is beside the point. It is just exasperation upon my part, so forgive me my ravings, will you?

Now to the meat of the subject, as I told the above "security" organizations: I know the exact whereabouts of "D.B. Cooper" and his accomplice, and also the EXACT SPOT that holds the money hidden from the human eye. I will go a little further and say that Cooper, who is about 35 years of age, and slightly, or a little more so, ~~blond~~ bald, is enjoying the holidays at his leisure with his accomplice, a very attractive red-headed woman of about the same age who has a miniature sized dog as a pet. (A check of the passenger list at the time of the hijack, and the memory of one of the stewardesses will reveal this to you.) First things first!

You will find the two depraved and mad outlaws about four and one half miles in on a dirt road on the east side of Lake Kachess, which is, by the way, a dead end road. When you have captured them, and as God, even Jehovah the Father, is my witness, you WILL capture them, and the maximum penalty of DEATH is too good for them, you will then contact me at the above address, and I will lead you to the ransom money. I have tried several times to recover it, but I now know why I have been unable to. "Cooper" left the very unstable plastic explosives in the bag with the money, and only a qualified disposal man should handle it, when the bag is recovered. The bag is slightly torn and a few bills are missing, but "Ya can't win 'em all!"

I am mailing a copy of this letter to a friend of mine, [redacted] of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, knowing that he is an honest man, and that he will not foolishly reveal this information for the same reason you won't. Skepticism, until proof positive has been received. You have your information, and the rest is between you and God (if you believe God), or between you and the Devil, (because he would have you disbelieve so that the murder and bombings that are continuing to happen because of the desperado fame of this man has gone unchecked).

[redacted] name, by the way, [redacted], and when these events have taken place, he is to have sole rights to the information and "Scoop." This is the will of my Heavenly Father. It is also Jehovah's will that I receive the reward for Cooper, and also for the ransom money, the total of which, as I believe, is $50,000. Along with that, out of the goodness of your heart, you will present me, as a messenger of God, with two honorary lifetime tickets to all parts of the world on your airlines, and honoured by other airlines. This is not very much to ask, for I will not use them for my own pleasure, but to spread the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the name of our Father, JEHOVAH. God Bless you and good hunting;

Apropos to your request, there is attached a copy of the serial numbers that were paid in the hijacking of the Northwest Airlines plane out of Portland, Oregon, on November 24, 1971. The FBI has not posted a reward in this case. I believe the reward you are referring to was published by the Oregon Journal in Portland, Oregon.

Dear [redacted]:

Thank you for your letter expressing an interest in locating the missing $20 bills obtained by the hijacker, "D. B. Cooper" on Thanksgiving eve, 1971.

Due to the limited supply of ransom lists and the great demand for them, it is impractical as well as impossible to make copies of this list available to the public. However, if you feel you might have one of the $20 bills, you can call your local police or sheriff's office and check the serial number against their list. In addition, many banking institutions throughout the country have a copy of the ransom list.

For your information, in addition to the $1,000 reward being offered by the Oregon Journal newspaper in Portland, Oregon, there is a reward of $25,000 being offered for the ransom money by Northwest Orient Airlines.

Thank you again for your interest in this matter.

Thank you for your expression of interest in locating some of the missing $20 bills obtained by the hijacker "D. B. Cooper" on Thanksgiving Eve, 1971.

There were 10,000 bills given to the hijacker after all of the serial numbers had been recorded by the FBI. The Journal is in the process of reproducing those serial numbers in installments over several days so that readers may check bills in their possession against the list.

The newspaper's publication of the list started on Thursday, Feb, 22, 1973.

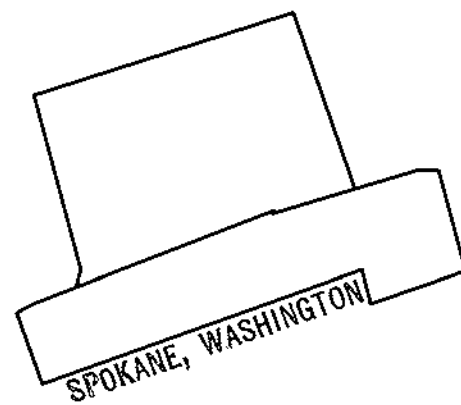

If it is impractical for you to see copies of the newspaper, may we suggest that you inquire at the closest FBI office to you whether you may obtain or inspect a copy of the FBI's official list. The telephone number of your nearest FBI OFFICE is usually found in the inside cover of your telephone book.

If you do discover that you have one of the missing bills, The Journal will pay you $1,000 for it if it is the first one to be turned in.

Good luck.

The "D. B. Cooper" hijacking case still seems to be hanging in air - - - unsolved. The money has never come in to circulation; no credible reports of the "presence" of the man; ground searches have not produced any positive evidence.

Which brings me to my reason for writing. Have any underwater searches been conducted, i.e., Riffe Lake in Lewis Co., Lake Merwin or Yale Reservoir in Columbia Co., or Swift Reservoir in Stamania Co. Or possibly Spirit Lake in Stamania County?

I am suggestively writing to you. About the airplane hijacking. I am an imaginative person and I have ideas come to me. I recently sent one to an airline. I am sending this one to you.

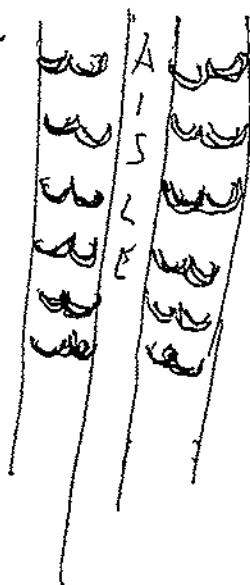

I think I see a possible way of altering the hijackers arena which could lead to other possible methods of thwarting.

The way I see it can involve a lot of or very little labor and material according to the degree of thwartment needed.

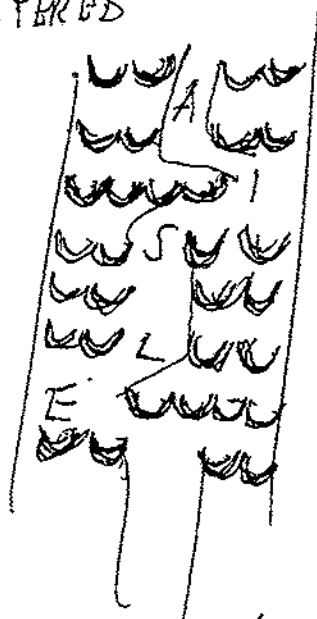

For planes smaller than the 747 I suggest that the aisle be interrupted with one or maybe two sets of seats be set up consecutively per each

Dear Sir;

I think of the D. B. Cooper case off and on [redacted]
[redacted]

I've been wondering for some time if anyone in Woodland mentioned the "Mystery Plane" article that appeared in our weekly Woodland News paper on July 29, 1971. It was put in by the Woodland Police Chief, Joe Mays.

I would send the clipping except, I don't have that paper. I looked it up at our Library so I could buy a back copy, but by that time the paper office was on vacation until after New Years.

To me the Mystery Plane article was food for thought. [redacted]
[redacted]

D. B. Cooper or whoever, could not have been unfamiliar with this area, prior to the Hijacking.

This Mystery Plane bugged Woodland for a week and according to Joe Mays, was the same plane that dropped Bubble gum on the school ground in the Spring. All this and still no one could read the numbers of the plane to report it. After the above article appeared in the paper, no one saw the plane again, that I know of.

[redacted] told me to keep my nose out of this, so until this information proves helpful or not, I will continue to sign as,

INFORMATION CONCERNING

On [REDACTED], ASAC [REDACTED], Seattle Division, viewed a television show "ISSUES 72" on Channel 4, KOMO TV, Seattle. A comment was made on this show concerning the whereabouts of D.B. COOPER and additional comments were made concerning the handling of recent hijackings by the FBI.

To determine exactly what these comments were, SA [REDACTED] was assigned to view a videotape of the above described TV show on 12/1/72.

The show "ISSUES 72" consisted of an interview by KOMO TV news personnel with [REDACTED], Western Airlines Pilot and [REDACTED] of the Airline Pilots Association (ALPA) and [REDACTED], a Northwest Orient Airline pilot.

The comment concerning COOPER was made by [REDACTED]. He was asked if he would care to comment on the whereabouts of "D.B. COOPER." He replied that he would not.

The comments concerning the handling of recent hijackings by the FBI were made by [REDACTED] and they consisted of basically [REDACTED] view that "violence breeds violence." [REDACTED] stated it was his opinion that no outside interference should be undertaken without the pilot of the hijacked plane's approval. [REDACTED] mentioned one exception to this rule, which he stated would be a case when a hijacked plane was forced to land in a foreign country. [REDACTED] did not further describe the situation.

Both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advised that ALPA is presently meeting in Las Vegas, Nevada. The purpose of this meeting is to determine what action should be taken by ALPA if the airlines fail to provide additional crew training and airport security.

This individual is a pilot, a parachuter they just feel they are doing their job. I can take my position and innocence as the proper

Just because I [redacted] wasn't going to stop me from the program I set for myself some time ago. This basically was to find the sources and through legal means stop them.
The pushers and small time dealers were all around us and as fast as they were picked up just snatching would stop nothing but would is really far out. Is everyone on the take?

I also know now that unless I can convince a few people otherwise there will be a because of a stupid use of information in the that one can work with.

[redacted] stated the shipper's copies are kept on file at the Grayling office and if it was suspected that the bow was purchased in a particular region of the country, the files for the dealers in that region could be reviewed and possibly the particular dealer which received that bow could be identified.

Airline Asks Search for Hijack Cash

SEATTLE (AP)—Hunters moving into the southwest Washington wilds for the opening on the general hunting season Saturday have been asked to look for $200,000—the money Northwest Airlines paid to the hijacker known as D. B. Cooper.

And they have been offered a $25,000 reward if they come up with the whole amount. The reward scales down to 15% of any lesser amount recovered.

Cooper, the only successful parachute hijacker, is believed to have bailed out of a Northwest 727 jetliner last Thanksgiving Eve somewhere over the southwest Washington area. Law enforcement agencies have scoured the area several times but without success.

Northwest, still convinced Cooper didn't survive the jump, hopes a hunter will stumble on the loot.

No Trace of Hijacker in Foot-by-Foot Search

Fate of 'D. B. Cooper,' Who Jumped From Airliner With $200,000 Still a Mystery

BY DARYL LEMBKE

Times Staff Writer

LAKE MERWIN, Wash. — Vince Tricola, proprietor of a grocery store and adjoining pub here on the shores of Lake Merwin, is waiting for delivery of a painting which he plans to display behind the bar.

It will commemorate the search for the elusive "D.B. Cooper," who the FBI thinks bailed out over this area with $200,000 on a rainy day last Thanksgiving eve after hijacking a Northwest Orient Airlines plane.

Tricola said he doesn't know if the artist is going to depict the hijacker floating safely and serenely to earth, or hanging by his parachute from a tree.

Tricola's customers have debated both possibilities endlessly since the hijacking.

Mystery Remains

The fate of "D.B. Cooper" is as much a mystery now as when he jumped, despite a new, intensive search of a 10-square-mile area around the lake by 200 soldiers from Ft. Lewis, Wash.

That 18-day hunt ended last week without finding either the hijacker's body or a single clue as to what happened to him. There was no parachute, no clothing and none of the $200,000.

hunt and who described the search as "cold, miserable and a lot of walking."

"Either he got away alive or he's at the bottom of the lake, or the FBI calculations of where he jumped aren't correct, but I have no doubt that this is where he dropped."

Capt. Charles Markham, an Army helicopter pilot with two hitchhikes in Vietnam who participated in the search, said troops covered every three to five feet of the search area on foot.

Tapes were stretched out to make sure that everything was systematically covered. Observers in eight Army helicopters also scanned the terrain from the air. Every broken treetop was examined.

Markham was asked if he believes "Cooper" survived.

"I think it's quite possible he did," replied Markham. "There's a lot of wide open area in which he could have jumped and got away. It's possible that he's dead somewhere in there and we didn't find him, but not probable."

Dear Sir

It seems to me this D B Cooper deal is the same guy that took off before the last man that was caught in the same deal a few weeks later. It seemed they put beepers in the 2nd time when he went with the $500,000. He was a trained parachutist. For me it is possible that he got away the first time he tried for the second and didn't make it.

I haven't seen any indications that the man couldn't be the same man. No other man has tried it.

I am not a detective but I ~~strongly~~ feel only one man is involved. No one else has tried it.

Yours truly

Specimens received 9/28/72

Q49 Envelope bearing hand printed address "Los Angeles Times Times-Mirror Square Los Angeles, Calif."

Q50 Accompanying two-page hand printed letter, first page beginning "Dear Sirs, [redacted] is Dead. "D. B. Cooper"..." b6 b7C

Q51 Second page beginning "Everything I've said here is..." and signed [redacted]

Result of examination:

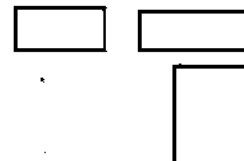

It was not determined whether the questioned writing on Q49 through Q51 was prepared by any of the persons involved in the preparation of the questioned material previously received in this matter. A conclusion could not be reached in this regard because of a lack of comparable writing and distortion in portions of the questioned material previously received; however, nothing of particular significance was noted in the limited comparison which could be conducted.

Q49 through Q51 were not identified in the Anonymous Letter File. Copies of these specimens have been added to this file for future reference.

No watermarks, indented writing, or other features were found on Q49 through Q51 which would be of value in determining the source of these specimens.

The submitted evidence was photographed and will be returned separately.

Dear Sir:

b6
b7C

In the May 10, 1972, issue of the "Seattle Flag," [] of which is shown in the newspaper as [] carried a headline, "D. B. Cooper Found!"

The paper also contained an enlarged reproduction of a $20 bill alleged to be from among the ransom money paid on November 24, 1971, during the hijack at Seattle, Washington, of Northwest Airlines' Flight No. 305, during which $200,000 ransom was paid by the airline company.

The newspaper contained a story which allegedly was an interview with "Cooper."

An examination by the FBI Laboratory of the $20 bill reproduced in the article established that it was not part of the ransom money, although the number was the same.

Special Agents [redacted] personally contacted the office of the Seattle Flag newspaper located at 222 Dexter Avenue North, Seattle, at approximately 3:15 PM on May 5, 1972 and asked for [redacted]. Several individuals were observed languishing on tops of desks and sitting in various groups scattered about the one large room which is the office space of the Seattle Flag newspaper. One unidentified individual stated that he was in the Advertising Department and that [redacted] and all of the [redacted] were out and he did not know when they would return. SA [redacted] identified himself and requested that [redacted] call him at the FBI Office as soon as he came in.

At approximately 4:00 PM, May 5, 1972, [redacted] telephonically contacted SA [redacted] at the FBI Office. [redacted] stated he recalled having talked to SA [redacted] several years ago in regard to the [redacted] which occurred at the University of Washington at Seattle. [redacted] then asked what it was all about. SA [redacted] advised [redacted] he wanted to talk to him personally and asked if he was going to be in his office. [redacted] stated he was not going to be in his office and then said "I don't want to talk to the FBI". [redacted] then asked "what's it all about". He was advised by SA [redacted] that he wanted to talk to him about the D.B. COOPER story published in the Seattle Flag. [redacted] stated "it's all in the article". He was advised that no, it was not all in the article as the FBI desired to know the identity of his source, name and address. [redacted] stated the source was anonymous in the article and would remain that way. SA [redacted] advised [redacted] either he would make the person's name and address, from whom he obtained the story, available or he would not. [redacted] stated he would not. [redacted] then added "it's not those two men from Bremerton, Washington."

At this point the interview was terminated.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

[] "Seattle Flag, Inc.," was interviewed at the offices of that publication, 222 Dexter North, Seattle, Washington, concerning an article appearing in the "Seattle Flag", Volume 1, #5, under date of May 10, headlined, "D.B. COOPER FOUND." Although the paper is dated May 10, it was placed on the newsstands 5/1/72.

[] was advised by SA CHARLES E. FARRELL of his right to remain silent and that anything he might say could be used against him in court; of the fact he had the right to the services of an attorney and that if he did decide to speak, he could cease to do so at any time he chose.

[] advised that the paper did pay $1,000 for the story as indicated in the newspaper, but he refused to disclose from whom the story was obtained. He said the story was furnished to him on tapes and that the reproduction of a $20 bill appearing in the "Seattle Flag" was made by them from a photograph of a $20 bill which was given to them when they purchased the story.

[] advised that the "Seattle Flag" normally has a circulation of 25,000 copies, but the issue carrying the "D.B. COOPER" story sold 28,000. They were prepared to print another 25,000 when the story appeared in the newspapers about the arrests of two individuals in the Bremerton area, who perpetrated a hoax on Newsweek Magazine. Because of that hoax story, they did not reprint the issue and their sales immediately dropped off.

[] advised he would be willing to cooperate with the FBI in furnishing "surrounding information" (but would never disclose the identity of the person who sold the story) in exchange for information as to where the discrepancies were in the "Seattle Flag" story. [] was advised that no such information would be furnished to him.

The above interview was conducted in [] office and began at approximately 10:48 AM and was concluded at approximately 11:05 AM.

RE: PARACHUTE FOUND NEAR THE KALAMA RIVER ROAD

On September 7, 1972, SA [] advised telephonically that he had discovered a parachute hanging from the top of a tall pine tree, approximately 15 miles from the end of the Kalama River Road. Thirty yards from the tree in which the parachute was found was a piece of white plastic on which was inscribed the following: "United States Department of Commerce, NOAA - National Weather Service, Radio Sonde."

[] stated the parachute was a reddish color with white shroud lines. The parachute appeared to be slightly smaller than a normal-sized parachute and appeared to have something hanging from the end of it that looked like part of a box.

On September 7, 1972, [] [], United States Department of Commerce, National Weather Service, 909 First Street, Seattle, Washington, advised his department uses parachutes to recover radio sonde equipment attached to weather balloons. [] explained that a balloon is released with the radio equipment attached to it. The balloon rises to a preset height, at which time the balloon explodes. The radio equipment then falls a short distance and a small parachute opens and carries the radio equipment safely to the ground. This parachute is slightly smaller than a regular-sized parachute and it is pink in color with white shroud lines. [] further stated that housing the radio sonde equipment is a white plastic box with the following inscription: "United States Department of Commerce, NOAA - National Weather Service, Radio Sonde."

She advised that ART LINKLETTER is the [REDACTED] and that he was raised by a [REDACTED] named LINKLETTER. ART LINKLETTER was previously known as [REDACTED]

On 8/17/72, [REDACTED], residing at [REDACTED], Lilburn, Georgia, furnished the following information.

During the first week of November 1971, he was on an elk hunting trip in the northeastern portion of the state of Oregon. During this hunt he ran across a log shelter cabin and a cache of survival gear located in a remote place in this area. He is unaware of the significance of this cache but furnished this information after hearing about captioned case. He advised that a short time after the hijacking he was transferred by his company from Portland, Oregon, to Atlanta, Georgia, and only recently received his furniture and personal effects. Since some of the data contained herein was with his personal effects he was unable to furnish this information prior to this time.

He produced a United States Department of Agriculture, Forest Service map of the Joseph Ranger District, Wallowa Whitman National Forest, dated in 1965. He stated that this map is available through the headquarters of the Forest Service in Portland, Oregon. He stated that the area that he is relating to is located within sections 1, 12, or 13 of Range 49 East in Township 1 north as set out on the above described map.

He states that he was off hunting by himself on this one particular occasion, when he stumbled into an area of heavy brush, he discovered a log shelter constructed entirely of logs five to six inches in diameter. The building being approximately four feet long by five feet wide and four feet high, the opening to the shelter was covered by logs propped in place and staked in position in the ground. At the time he was there, there was approximately 12 to 18 inches of snow on the ground and this amount of snow had been in the area for four to six weeks prior to this time. He noticed no fresh tracks near the shelter or cache at the time.

He was unable to look into the shelter to see what was contained therein and he did not remove any of the logs to examine it. He did notice a duffel bag hanging from a tree near by. This duffel bag had the name [redacted] or the last name could be [redacted] with Air Force number [redacted] imprinted on the duffel bag. The bag appeared to be old and contained numerous tears and wear holes. He examined the contents of the duffel bag and discovered that it contained rifle bullets, long-handled men's underwear, shoe grease, candles, a jacket, vitamin pills, and some hippie-type smoking pipes, which appeared to handmade. He noticed no food, no socks, or shoes in the bag. He noted that several of these items still had price tags on them reflecting that they were purchased either at GI Joe's or Andy and Box both of which are Army surplus stores located in Portland, Oregon. He did not recall any dates of purchase.

He also noted that there was a left-handed bow, as used by archers, hanging from a tree nearby. He removed this bow and took it with him, the bow bears the name Baer Archery Company, Grayling, Michigan, registration number [redacted].

He stated that the area of the cache is located in what is known as Hell's Canyon, near the boundary between eastern Oregon and Idaho. It is located generally in a gully between Windy Ridge and the next ridge located to the southwest. He states that the nearest community is in Imnaha, Oregon, located on the Imnaha River. To get to the area you take the Hat Point Road out of Imnaha and follow it to the end of the pavement, at this point you follow the wide trail that goes out on Windy Ridge and finally comes to a dead end. The road ends at a small draw and the area of the cache is located about 200 or so yards from the end of the road.

He stated that this general area has the appearance of being used during the summer months by packtrain trips coming from various dude ranches in the area and located nearby is a camping area which might be an overnight stopping point on these packtrain trips. He stated that from this camping area the site of the cache is perhaps 100 to 150 yards away up the side of a hill in heavy brush. The cache could not be seen from the camping area but the area could probably be pointed out by one of the rangers from the nearby ranger station at Hat Point.

[] stated that with him on this trip was an individual named [] who goes by the name [] who is a builder in Portland, Oregon, but who resides in Aurora, Oregon, having home telephone number [] thinks that probably [] could point out the area where the party camped during this elk hunt and might possibly be able to assist in locating the area of the cache. Other members of the hunting party were a young relative of [] last name unrecalled, who is possibly a student at one of the community colleges in the Portland, Oregon, area. The third member of the trip is [] who is employed as [] in the Portland area. [] states that no one was with him when he found the cache and the others would know of his find based only on the information he furnished them.

Due to the fact that the Hell's Canyon area is located a considerable distance from the possible flight path of the aircraft in captioned case, flying from Seattle to Reno, the significance of this information is not known to the Atlanta office, accordingly, no leads are being set out in the Portland area at this time. Leads are being designated for the Detroit office to determine if the bow found by [] is registered.

Dear Sir:

[redacted] 7-7-71 b6 b7C

I have thought of a idea that may work in the prevention of aircraft hijacking. It came to me while reading and noting that our government and aircraft builders have not come up with a real solution to the problem. The cost at this time to find a way to stop hijacking is tremendous. Plus the possible loss of life & aircraft. This are my conditions to expose my idea $150,000 tax free if it is tested and works. I was in the Air Force for eight years. Also I worked for Boeing Aircraft for two years as a Quality Control inspector of aircraft. Knowing the Air Craft systems makes me believe that it will work.

Dear

I have received your letter of July 10th and appreciate your remarks concerning this Bureau's endeavors to curtail the hijacking of airplanes. It was thoughtful of you to comment as you did regarding Special Agents in Charge Milnes and Gebhardt. You may be sure they and the men assigned to their divisions share my appreciation for your kind remarks about the effectiveness of their efforts. Communications such as yours mean a great deal to us.

I want you to know I strongly support you and your organization on the way you do your job. I have always admired the FBI because of the good image it has maintained and its dedication to bringing federal lawbreakers to justice. You have a great task filling the void left by the late Mr. Hoover. He was one of the few individuals so endowed with great leadership qualities who made FBI what it is today.

When an occasional high ranking American makes detrimental remarks about the FBI, it amazes me. These people make these remarks mostly to gain publicity by means of the news media, and at the same time gain support from splinter groups who don't respect any legal authority. I think they are jealous and very envious of the F.B.I. because of the efficiency, respect, and professionalism you have attained.

What really precipitated this letter to you are the recent air hi-jackings the F.B.I. is involved in, [redacted]

F.B.I. office in Seattle, Wash. under Mr. Milnes SAC on the D. B. Cooper Case [redacted]

[redacted] in the Seattle and Tacoma offices exemplified what I have mentioned above about the F.B.I. I know that air piracy activities take up much of your time and budget and I believe the sky jackers should be apprehended and sentenced early for their deeds. Mr. Ebbhardt, SAC San Francisco, did what should have been done in all events of air piracy. He kept that P.S.A. airplane on the ground. This is the way to keep sky jacking from getting out of hand. The policy of "catering to" or "giving in to" the demands of the sky jacker must cease. Keep the aircraft on the ground and deal with the sky jacker the way Mr. Gelhardt did and these occurrences will decrease.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Milnes,

Although it looks as though everybody else except you is catching hitches, you should be wary about it, for I don't think that "D. B. Cooper" is hanging around Seattle. And even though it seems futile, I'm still checking all of my 20's for you.

You may wonder why some of these newspaper articles are on books and the New York Police Department. The books about Washington, D.C. might be both interesting and useful.

you to read, especially since someday you may be transferred there. However, there is no need for you to spend money, for the books should be free at your library.

The article about the New York Police Department is so that you may see how bad they are and how lucky you are not to have to live there. In spite of this, though, Mr. Malone and the New York C. B. S. do a magnificent and superlative job back there and certainly no man is better qualified to be C. B. S. director than John F. Malone.

Also notice the picture of the fat faced and sleazy-looking disgrace to womanhood to whom Mr. Gray has entrusted the care and feeding of the G. B. D. Let us hope that her emotional problems (evidenced by her inability to stop stuffing her mouth full of food) are not carried over into her work and that her arrogant hostility towards the G. B. D. (if you read the articles carefully, there there) will not cause any malfunctioning among the usually good-natured G. B. D.

It is also tragic that colored shirts and fancy hair does are now to be allowed. If men could only see how cheap and trashy they look in such things, colars and long hair would be left to the women.

After having watched Mr. Gray on television, I offer this unbiased opinion: he is a cupder who has ridden to fame and glory solely because of another's misfortune, and realizing that he is both a hare and a horse, knows that he could never in ten lifetimes have made it on his own. Knowing this about himself probably gives Mr. Gray not only great feelings of insecurity but also all sorts of personality aberrations which are manifested by some of his foolish remarks. Not only does Mr. Gray not want to share the spotlight with anybody but he also seems to not want to be reminded of Mr. Hoover. I can only suggest that when Mr. Gray is around you stay out of his way. Publicity wise

Sincerely yours,

On May 10, 1972, Mr. VERNER WEINZ, 1401 S. 12th, Mount Vernon, Washington, was contacted by the writer in response to a phone call he made to the Everett Resident Agency concerning captioned matter. Mr. WEINZ indicated that he worked for the Skagit County Sheriff's Office as a deputy for five years about 20 years ago, and would have come forward with information sooner if he had not developed such a distrust for the American Court System. He recently saw an article in the Seattle Times, which indicated that the Air Transport Association of America would pay up to $250,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons committing airborne crimes. Mr. WEINZ indicated that he is a businessman and felt that he could furnish some information concerning this hijacking if the reward was high enough.

Mr. WEINZ indicated that an individual he has known for several years, came to his home in Mount Vernon several weeks before the hijacking. He indicated that he and friends were going to pull a big deal with a take of $200,000. He said it would be the greatest news event in the northwest and would make all of the papers. His partner remained outside in the car while WEINZ spoke with his friend. Mr. WEINZ said he would furnish no other information until he was told how much reward he would get.

On May 10, 1972, SA CHARLES E. FARRELL was contacted by the writer regarding the above information. He indicated that the reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the subject is $5,000.

On May 11, 1972, Mr. VERNER WEINZ was again contacted at his home in Mount Vernon by the writer. He immediately inquired as to the amount of the reward and was given a figure of $5,000. Mr. WEINZ laughed and said he would furnish the information for no less than $50,000 and would have to have a majority of that amount in his possession before he would furnish any names. WEINZ did agree to furnish additional details concerning his conversation with the friend.

He advised that in November 1971, approximately 2 weeks before the hijacking, his friend stopped by the house. The friend indicated that a big deal had been set up two weeks prior, but was cancelled because of bad weather. He said there were three individuals involved and they needed one more. He indicated that one partner had backed out of the deal, and they needed a replacement. The friend indicated the group would make $200,000 and that this would be the biggest deal ever pulled in the northwest. As he left, he said, "You will read about this in all of the papers." He gave no details and never mentioned airplanes or hijacking. He stayed at the home approximately 1 1/2 hours, but said nothing specific about the type of job he had planned. On a previous contact the friend asked WEINZ if he would ever consider a job outside the law. WEINZ told him that he needed work and would consider anything. WEINZ further stated that there was a second man waiting for his friend in the car. He did not get a good look at him, but assumed he would be the man known as "D.B. Cooper". His friend is a large man, and in no way, fits the description of the hijacker.

Mr. WEINZ again stated that he would furnish no other information and would furnish no names, unless he is insured of at least $50,000. He said that the more he thinks it over, the more he thinks the information is worth at least $100,000.

WEINZ is a white male, American, born May 24, 1911, 6'2", 210 pounds, gray hair, blue eyes.

On May 11, 1972, this matter was discussed with Sheriff JOHN BOYINGTON, Skagit County Sheriff's Office Mount Vernon, Washington. BOYINGTON advised that he has known WEINZ for many years and served with the sheriff's office at the same time as WEINZ. He indicated that WEINZ was in the pinball machine business for several years before the state clamped down on the business. He has many contacts outside the law and has the ability to obtain information about crimes. In most instances, his information is fairly accurate. BOYINGTON stated that WEINZ is in desperate need of money and would furnish information if even a small amount were offered to him. He also stated that WEINZ drinks too much at times and tends to become loud and boasts. He can be a very dangerous man at most times and is very strong.

No further investigation being conducted, unless requested by case agent.

Dear Sirs,

D.B. Cooper did survive his parachute jump of Nov. 23 1971 as he had survived previous parachute jumps on the Haun landing strip three years ago. He was last month, Feb. 1972, sitting in the Steam Engine Lear Bus in Nevada when it was shown on T.V. The cameras did show inside the bus, a man wearing dark glasses who did look annoyed when the cameras swept upon him. This man was D.B. Cooper who chose his grandfather initials, Cooper is because his first name is Jack. Jack Linkletter has tried to break away from his murderous father several times in the past starting from the time he was about 15 when he ran away from home. As always, he was brought back like a puppy on a leash.

Jack was an eye witness the night of the Tate murders as was John Zweyer who was soon executed by Robert (the Zodiac killer) after having turned down bribery by Art. Jack knows also that Diane was thrown out of that window to shut her up because she was to expose all of the Linkletters' murders and conspiracies, The International White Guard who commits assassinations, bombings, infiltration of other groups, headed in this country by Art, the pushing of narcotics for as long as she had been born by Dad, the McClellan landing strip being used for narcotic traffic three years ago, the demolition experts part of the Intern. White Guard who bombs banks, Airlines etc. Diane would also have exposed a conspiracy that took place before Sept.³⁰ 1969, the Hughes book conspiracy which at this time included only the Linkletters [redacted] on them as well as the signature of Howard Hughes. It was no coincidence that the bombings of TWA [redacted]

[redacted] the Linkletters needed a writer to put together their fraudulent book to convince a publisher that this was a Hughes autobiography. The bombings and threats were a display of force and power which meant: "We can crash any plane you can board if you ever mention our names."

Jack Linkletter did demonstrate last Nov. that if a pilot can board a plane carrying a bomb, he can also fly his small plane over any area and drop bombs. How many pilots have become wealthy within the past 25 years flying narcotics for the Linkletters who have been deeply involved in this racket? Since those pilots are well qualified, they can be employed by any Airline besides Flying Tiger, Western or Lear Jets. Is it not about time that Jack Linkletter is asked what he knows about his father's future plans for the 1972 election, who are to be bombed out of existence so a corrupted individual from Sacramento is boosted into the White House?

Without his father or lawyers being present, I think Jack would tell while he still can, before he is sent Diane's way.

Re: Skyjackers D.B.Cooper and A.F. Johnson

They were Jack Linkletter and Robert L⁺inkletter who didn't parachute down from a low flying plane but did it as it is done in Air Shows. The gaz mask worn by Robert did game me the true clue, also the shoes worn by Jack who is a pilot. A man comes down from a low flying plane wearing a gaz mask, a back pack which is a jet engine that can be controlled for a very soft landing, standing up as I saw in an Air show a few years ago.

An accomplice could have locked those items in a washroom to be used by the skyjacker with maybe a gun, a grenade etc. Another accomplice pick-up the skyjacker on the grounds. The man with the plane around the McClellan landing strip, the man with the helicopter near Provo Utah. Helicopter do lands at airports where the skyjacker could have boarddd a plane to maybe N.Y. and later on return to L.A. The loot and other items being left with the helper, so if anyone were to be caught, it wouldn't be our smart birds who did the actual skyjacking.

Why would the Linkletters need money that cannot be traced to them? To bomb here, there, to overthrow our Govt., to coverup all of their murders, to coverup their connections with the underworld for more than 25 years etc.....

Since last Nov. 1971, I have had the definite impression that Jack Linkletter was trying to get arrested, was redly to tell the truth but still finds himself trapped between two murderers, his father and his brother.

Re: "D. B. Cooper"

Gentlemen:

If this man was the expert he is alleged to be in "parachuting" he must have been able to guide his 'chute to a predetermined spot, such as landing on a rocky island in the Columbia River between Hood River and Longview - weighting the parachutes down with good sized rocks, and possibly even secreting the cash in waterproof containers to return in 4 to 6 months to pick them up. In a prevailing SW. wind controlling the 'chute would not be difficult, according to jumps witnessed at air shows. This may be a long shot - but it might bear checking out.

DB Cooper-31701

Dear Sir: Some months back, I made a report to some local police in a neighboring small town concerning the man who had high-jacked the plane with 200,000. ransom money. Several days back in talking with one of these men he said, they had not sent the information. So will mail direct, what I believe is God given information concerning the man who had so far gotten away with his act.

In a vision -- I was up in the air, looking down, I saw a man sitting on the ground, under some deciduous trees, he had raked some leaves around him, evidently to make some sort of a bed. It looked like his left leg may have been injured. Possibly some 200 feet to the (north?) of him was a barn, and beyond the barn must have been a house, although I was not able to see it. There were some people running out beyond the line of the barn, they saw this man laying under the trees. I heard one man say, we have to get him out of there, before some one sees him. It was several days later, I saw this man walking out, I believe a dirt road. There was a restaurant out a short distance. Some people in the restaurant saw him coming, they became afraid, locked the door and got out of sight. -- That was all. I was given no information as to the location or in what state. This much, it was in an area where there were deciduous trees, no evergreens, and in an area where lumbering was going on. On the back of this page, I will draw a cut of the restaurant as I saw it.

Again, in listening to a news cast, I learned the hunt for this man or men is still continuing. That night in a prayer to our Heavenly Father, I asked for information which I could forward to the law enforcement agencies, which would enable them to capture this man or men. In a vision - I was over some water, up in the air a short distance, and out from the shore a short distance, where the water met the shore, there was just about enough space for a person to walk along. The bank went almost straight up, just how high I did not see, but it must have been at least 8 or 10 feet or more. I saw a man along the shore, they had dug a little channel in to the bank, about 2 or 3 ft. wide. The man at the bottom, I could not see what he was doing, but I heard him call to some one at the top, to stop, and the man at the top - now, how are you going to get back up here. The man at the bottom replied, I will walk along until I find an opening. He appeared to be around 25 years and maybe 5ft. 8 or 10 inches tall. Concerning the man, I believe it is in a water tight container, and on second thought, I wonder if that is what the man at the bottom was doing, burying it along the bank. Please forward this information to the proper law enforcement agency and may God help them to capture the guilty. And if God made me see the following --- I was walking thru quite a dense woods, I came to the back side of a building, walking around one end and to the opposite side. On the further end was a partially opened door. As I came close to the door, there was some one standing in the door looking out. He evidently sensed my presence, quickly stepped back inside. I stepped around the door and looked in, the man was walking away from me. A voice at my side, quickly spoke to me -- he is the man who killed those people. I became fearfully afraid, and started running thru the woods to get away, looking back to see if he was following me. I was having a terrible time making my head-way, and then I took off just like a bird, flying above the tree tops. I was getting some where. After some distance I landed back on the ground. A short distance ahead was a cabin, I called to a woman sweeping on the porch, she became scared, and quickly stepped back inside. I then called to the man sitting in a rocking chair, to call the police; the man who killed those people in back there in the woods in a building. He quickly left and in a few ^{minutes} was back with other men carrying guns, one had a machine gun and immediately left in that building. That was all. That evening on returning from my trip [redacted] and listening to a news cast. The police had their men.

Dear Sir,

Reference: My letter of February 24, 1972, Subject: "D. B. Cooper."

Apparently Mr. "D. B. Cooper" is still at large. Perhaps my first letter was ignored as a "witchhunt." Granted, my interest is in a reward. My limited knowledge of this person all points to a perfect "D. B. Cooper."

I have retouched a "D. B. Cooper" composite picture to more closely resemble my suspect. A reproduction of this picture is shown below.

If you haven't made any headway in your investigation, may I suggest that you photograph various views of this man and record his voice at calm and angry moods. Then the plane passengers and crew who are available could either identify or exonerate him.

I remember the following additional information about him: He had been in the merchant marine. He was treated at the Public Health Hospital, located at 15th Avenue and Lake Street, San Francisco, California for liver or kidney operation. Perhaps they told him he has only a limited future. He has a yellowish complexion and usually a grim expression.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Milnes,

Although I have been checking all of my "20 bills" against the list of bills that were paid to D. B. Cooper last November, I have been unable to find any in which you would be interested. I really don't think that Los Angeles attracts many hijackers anyway; perhaps El Paso would be a better place to look.

I am enclosing some newspaper clippings that you might not have seen in your Seattle newspapers. I realize that there is very little news from Los Angeles, but ever since the Los Angeles S. B. I. moved into a fancy new office building in an even fancier part of Los Angeles, their accomplishments, as chronicled by the news media, have been almost nil. I don't think that the image that the S. B. I. is trying to promote for themselves (that of the Chamber of Commerce type of businessman) is too conducive to luring informers out of their ratholes, nor would one think that the agent who attends black-tie dinners looks forward to spending his working days going into the seamier parts of Los Angeles to apprehend some dangerous and armed man. However, I'm sure that the S. B. I. can survive without my advice.

Dear Friends,

In trying to be helpful to find the $200,000.00 and the dead D.B.C., I feel you will have luck in finding them south of Merwin Lake, north of Ambay and east of Green Mt.

This too I would suggest: have your research staff check to see if there were any earthquakes in the area since Nov. 25/71. If so, then try to pinpoint its epicenter why? Because Jesus Christ the Lord who appears to me in my forehead commanded of me to command in his name earthquakes on the D.B.C. What significance is that? Namely that only the G-Men and the troops will be able to find the $200,000.00 and the corpse of the dead D.B.C.

[redacted]

Since I wrote to you last Thursday I have had very little to eat.

What I am interested in is getting results. I know Our Lord knows all things.

Hitler, mustache of whom I told you about since last fall is another of those Satan filled schizophreniacs like the squell imposter of the DBC.

The Spiritual Gift, The Discerning of Spirits is genius in religion, and in psychiatry, also. Intelligence Genius.

As we work together I would suggest that you keep a log on earth quakes and there locations. Where commanded on the Underworld and people like the dead DBC and they happen, they pinpoint that for which you are looking.

Where research and development develop the new "Sniffer," homicide, victims, suicides etc can be easily detected where their bodies are unburied.

I know this DBC is like trying to find a needle in a haystack.

Our Lord told me that only the G-Men and troops looking for the DBC on P.S. and the loot will be successful in finding them. He also told me the DBC had caused enough expense to the U.S. Govt., and when you find him bury him in a 10' deep grave; and B4 Udo, take photographs of him, and have the Doctor examine him because he, the DBC, had a compound fracture in his left leg. After you bury him take a good piss on his unmarked grave to fertilize the earth such that later, "the weeds that smell, will tell, one whom thy Lord hath cursed in the soil of the earth doeth dwell."

You should find the DBC south of the Lewis River, ~~south~~ south on a slope. I feel about 2 miles north of Amboy.

I also know if I fly with the Chopper pilots, my Lord can pinpoint the DBC and loot by having me command an earthquake on the spot, that in turn will cause ~~caused~~ radical deflection or oscillation of the magnetic compass needle on the instrument pannel.

I hope this case is solved this week, and I hope we get a break in the weather.

In the general area of the dead DBC you will find trees blown down, facing east and west and south of his corpse. Also south of his corpse is a abandoned, delapidated old shack. About 2 to 5 miles away.

That is all the Intelligence I have for you now which my Lord gave me.

Weather don't sound too good for tomorrow on the news.

Good luck and so long for now.

Most sincerely yours,
Your friend,

Doctor's Murder Spree An Enigma

Upland police checked the background of Dr. Jules Van Praag, 42, today in a search for a motive that triggered a murder-suicide rampage which left the Upland psychologist, his wife and their daughter dead.

Fighting for survival and still in serious condition in Arcadia Methodist Hospital is Van Praag's secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McClellan, 43, of 6220 Golden West Ave., Temple City. She was shot in the head in what police believe was a related incident.

Autopsy reports from Imperial and San Bernardino County coroner offices indicate Dr. Van Praag died from a self-inflicted head wound with a small caliber pistol and that Mrs. Van Praag and the girl, Melanie Jean, 14, died of "traumatic injuries to the head."

San Bernardino County Coroner Bill Hill also said examinations of the mother and daughter, both found in their fashionable Upland home in large plastic garbage bags, indicated "strangulation was a contributing cause of death."

Hill said he conferred briefly with Van Praag's Los Angeles attorney last night and "we are still looking for a motive. The attorney was shocked and said he had no forewarning that such a tragedy would occur."

But Hill's conference with the lawyer turned up, for the second time, evidence that Van Praag had given recent thought to complications that arise from death.

The attorney, according to Hill, recently had updated Van Praag's last will and testament. Earlier, investigators determined that the psychologist had made arrangements for the cremation of himself and his wife in the event of their deaths.

The grisly trail of death was discovered after Dr. Van Praag's secretary was found screaming and wounded in a street Monday night.

She said she had been shot after meeting Van Praag at his office, but that she did not see her assailant.

Hill said he didn't know when ballistic tests would be complete, but other investigators indicated she and Van Praag were shot by bullets from "small caliber weapon or weapons." Surgeons were expected to decide today when they could remove the bullet from Mrs. McClellan's head.

Van Praag's body was found early yesterday in a rented car in a gully just off Highway 86, north of Westmoreland in Imperial County. He had been shot in the mouth and officers found a .22 caliber revolver at the scene.

Several hours earlier, police in Upland found the body of Van Praag's wife, Anne, 43, stuffed in a plastic bag inside a closet of the home. The first search of the house failed to turn up any sign of the daughter, but 12 hours later the child's body, also wrapped in a bag, was found under a bed when investigators conducted a second search of the $50,000 home at 520 W. Emerson Road.

The wife and daughter both had been savagely beaten about the head, and Hill said each had marks on her neck. An ax was found nearby, he said, and laboratory tests were ordered to determine whether it may have been the murder weapon.

Boycott Stays On Paris Peace Talks

PARIS (UPI) — Negotiators for the U.S. and South Vietnamese delegations to the Vietnam Peace talks said Tuesday they will continue their two-week-old boycott of the conference in protest against a Communist walkout at the last negotiating session Feb. 24.

In a joint statement issued by the American embassy, the two allies said they also were boycotting this week's session because of "recent official announcements from Hanoi." They proposed March 16 as the date for the next meeting.

Vietnamese delegation called The U.S. and South Vietnamese protest stems from the last session held nearly two weeks ago in which both Communist delegations walked out of the conference hall after reading through their own statements in 17 minutes. They did not stay to hear the allied speeches.

U.S. HIJACKER GETS PARACHUTES, $50,000

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A Hughes Airwest jetliner was hijacked from McCarran International Airport here today by a man who said he had a bomb.

The man was given $50,000, two parachutes and a crash helmet by officials as the DC-9 waited on the ground. He then allowed the 56 passengers to leave. The crew remained aboard and the plane took off at 12:36 p.m. Its destination was not known.

Airline officials said the plane was preparing to take off for Reno when the hijacker confronted a stewardess with his demands and warned he was carrying dynamite.

They said the pilot later confirmed the man appeared to have five sticks of dynamite in a bag.

tal dispute to arbitra

s every year and I never thought it necessary to attend the interment. We are alive and well and never felt any other way."

The other commissioners are former United Steelworkers of America executive Pen Baskin and former railway executive Alistair Pollock.

Asked whether the commission is prepared to ignore the government's 6.5-per-cent ceiling in the nurses' dispute, Parker said, "We'll cross that bridge when we come to it."

"We have to hear the evidence first, and then come up with a decision that is fair and reasonable."

"In all these things there are always additional complications and we can't follow any set path as a rule."

However, BCHA labor relations director James Linklater said, "We are going with the commission on the assumption that the government will recognize the award whatever it is to be."

The association has staunchly opposed independent arbitration of its dispute with the union.

Its reasoning is that if such outside arbitration resulted in a higher settlement than 6.5 per cent, the government would not go along and pay its share of the increase, Linklater explained.

Linklater also noted that referral of disputes to the commission "is within the legislation" and that the public interest is clearly involved in hospitals.

Nora Paton, the nurses' chief negotiator, said this is the first time that her group has submitted a contract dispute to binding arbitration.

"But we agreed to it voluntarily," she said.

The nurses have never made their wage demand public, but were incensed when the government imposed the ceiling while they were in the middle of bargaining.

"It was highly inappropriate, considering the settlements the teachers won," Miss Paton said Wednesday.

Education Minister Donald Brothers had imposed a 6.5-per-cent ceiling on school boards in October, but it was ignored and the teachers won an average 7.6-per-cent raise. In Vancouver it was 8.9 per cent.

Mediator Clark Gilmour was appointed in the nurses' case early this month and is continuing with negotiations on non-monetary items.

Parker said Gilmour will try to reduce the number of outstanding issues before the commission starts the hearing.

He said the official requests

Dear Sir,

With reference to the enclosed news item, which I understand was successfully terminated tonight by the person being arrested.

My suggestion is this:-

Should it not be possible for your organization, on receipt of a demand for money, have on hand a substance which could be sprayed on the money - neutralising the printing after a certain length of time - for example 12 or 24 hours.

Even if the hijacker made a successful landing, his profit would be considerably reduced, if not eliminated. Also the possibility of passing the money through a "fence" would be very remote.

It would not be necessary that the whole surfaces be sprayed and the cans could be held in reserve at the larger cities, where these offences are more prevalent.

Yours Sincerely

Re: Skyjacker

He definitely is Jack Linkletter who less than two weeks before was in Woodland Hills [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted]
[redacted] Your artist drawing is very accurate because this is exactly the way he looked without toupee, same glasses and thick brown makeup to make his complexion olive. Also I thought he had on the tip of his nose a plastic band to give that pinched look. However the makeup didn't cover the warts near his nose and mouth.

Although he says he never will be caught, he wants to be found, wanted me to recognize him by the composite drawing.
He says he never had a speeding ticket, he has not driven a car for several years now, does ride a motorcycle and fly a plane.
The McClellans and Haun landing strips are well known to him. His sister Diane did mention three days before her death that these landing strips were used for narcotic traffic, also there was a death connected which would have been over two years ago. What Jack is doing is running away from two cold-blooded murderers, his father Art and his brother Robert. He Jack, was booby-trapped to be with them the night of the Tate murders as were some people who lived at the Spahn Ranch. The actual killings were at the hands of away where they were parked, probably in shock. Was with them for the next two days. Diane Linkletter was a witness by phone that night before the telephone lines were cut, her brother-in-law John Zweyer was sent by Art's wife to help because there had to be a very good logical explanation. He, John was parked in this area with his lights off till 2.30 that night, saw Robert on the grounds, also taking a rope to the Tate residence, saw Jack sitting with his head in his hands... John was executed three weeks later after having turned down bribery by Art. Robert did the shooting, was waiting for him in the patio, made it look like suicide. They had waited for Jack to be on his way to Hawaii so he wouldn't question the suicide story. Diane met with the same fate, she was guarded for the last two days of her life, would have exposed them.

Jack also know that it was Dr. Ohta from Sequel who had prescribed the glasses Robert lost at the Tate residence the night of the murders. Dr. Ohta and his family also his secretary were executed last October 1970. Another man was used by Robert and was just convicted and sentenced to death. No Linkletter is ever arrested in Calif. where they seem to have absolute control over our law enforcement agencies.

14 more months to live means that he believes that another administration will take over in Jan. 1973 which will bring about the Linkletter's downfall. Jack will find himself a witness against his father and brother, something he wants no part of. However in the meantime, he would like to keep alive. He and his wife needs protection. She wanted to report him missing the night of the Tate murders because she feared his father and brother might kill him if he tried to stop them. Art's wife took control saying no one should call the Police,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The next day, John Zweyer told her that to report Jack missing will cause all three to be caught Jack along with the two others, Art and Robert who are psycho-killers.

The father of Art Linkletter was Desire Belanger. This is where D.B. comes from. Cooper? Because his first name is Jack. The 10 letters at the bottom of the letter mailed to L.A. Times with numbers, do match the 10 letters in the Linkletter's name. I read a message here. 7698QA2753

I don't believe, he, his wife and children should be sacrificed so two cold-blooded murderers remain free to keep on killing. I can testify for him behind closed doors or in open court. All I have to do is repeat what his sister Diane was saying three days before her death while taking a beating from her brother Robert.
